Chapter 1 by Jordan

What is it that a person thinks of when they know death is imminent. Does their life flash before their eyes or do they remember the good memories? Maybe they think useless, thought provoking ideas such as this.

Whatever the case, I am about to die. I can feel my blood flowing from my body, the sounds of sirens and the embrace of snow against my back. MY eyes are starring at the sky and breathing hurts.

I don't want to die. No one ever does. I am afraid.
